M. C. R. R.—Trains pass Bolivar as follows: Passenger train, south, 3:00 p.m.; passenger train, north, 12 o'clock at night.

FLUENT.—The following dialogue took place a day or two since in the office of the deputy United States Internal Revenue collector for this county.

Enter.—Countryman of means with a thundering bump of self-esteem.

Collector.—Well, good morning Mr. Smith; I suppose you have called for the purpose of settling your account with Uncle Sam? Ah! he's a great institution, and we must all sustain him.

Smith.—[Slightly confused and somewhat astonished.]—Yes, I guess so; if I have been arrested I'll go out and try to collect some money for you. Good morning sir!

Jack J., one of our heartiest fellow citizens, tells the following parallel to the foregoing: A gentleman, a trader in horseflesh and mules, and who had just arrived in our town from the grassy plains of Kentucky, sold a mule to an American citizen of African descent, for the sum of $100. On last Sunday morning the seller of the aforesaid mule was seated in front of the Livery stable, where was collected a crowd of several whites and as many darkies. "Sam," said one of the new made voters, "how much you say Bill gib for dat mule?" "One hundred and forty dollars." "De hell he did, dat nigger's cheated sartin; de mule strut wof shucks." The Kentuckian, who was sitting near by, arose from his seat and looking Mr. darkey square in the face, said: "You're a liar, he never gave but one hundred," and leisurely walked into the stable. After he had gone, Bill, feeling that he had done wrong, tapped Sam on the shoulder and said, at the same time turning the white of his eyes towards the stranger: "I expect I rather fringed upon dat man!"

Myra's story.—A fellow of another good looking appearance, ready tongue and a powerful memory, calling himself "Dr. Wilson," came among us a few days ago and left for parts unknown. His landlord would like for him to remit $25 board bill; several of our merchants would also feel gratified if Wilson's memory would serve him, as they are not disposed to credit a man who is going to Texas—especially if the account had to run as long and as fast as the man that made it! Come back, come back across the stormy road, and pay Dottie Black your board.

Captured.—W. H. Parks, who killed Wm. Raney at Salisbury last January one year ago, and who, bound over in the sum of $3000, will be remembered, betook himself to a colder climate, and was bidding fair to leave his bondsmen in rather an unpleasant plight, was a short time since, captured in the southern part of Illinois and recommitted to jail in this place. To our fellow citizen, John B. Ruffin, belongs the merit of honor, he having undertaken, and successfully too, the arduous and difficult task of bringing the trial to justice. We suppose that Parks' trial will transpire during the coming week.

No Mail.—What up? Have the mail agents lost all care for the valuable packages entrusted to them? We never get a mail here on Monday mornings although the train from the south passes this point Sunday nights as regular as clock-work; and it often happens that no mail matter arrives at the Bolivar post office for two or three days at a time. Does the fault rest with the distributing agent at the Junction? It is to be hoped that some one of Uncle Sam's chosen pets will look into the loose way in which mails are handled on the Mississippi Central Railroad, for it is an actual hardship the way Hardeman county people are treated as respects their papers and correspondence.

Goss North.—Mr. Leon Bills, of the firm of Bills & Hill, left the quietude of our little city during the first of the present week for the eastern cities, whither he goes for the purpose of selecting a full line of goods suitable to the spring trade. This is the first departure of the kind from our town this season, and is an evidence that those who sell for cash in hand are always ready and have to wait for no man. We presume that other representatives of the flourishing business houses of Bolivar will follow in a few days. A lively spring and summer trade is anticipated.

CHURCH COURT.—This court meets next Monday. Several important cases are to be disposed of, and we presume that the "old man and all of the family" will be in town. Circuit court in Hardeman is a big thing, and never fails to draw!

HEAVY TOAST.—Here's to the men that pulled the trigger that killed the men that freed the "nigger."

Here's to Brownlow.—he came in without opposition and will go out without none!

RESUMED PRACTICE.—Dr. G. P. Harris, of Clover Port, has resumed the practice of medicine and tender his service to former patrons, and the public generally. The Doctor's office will be at his residence, near Clover Port, Hardeman county.

A Postscript.—I love to look upon a young man. There is a hidden potency concealed within his breast which pains and charms me.

The daughter of a clergyman happened to find the above sentence at the close of a page of her father's manuscript and had left it in his study, and down and asked: "Them's my sentiments exactly papa, excepting the 'pains'."

MEMPHIS BUSINESS NOTICES.

CLOTHING.—For fine clothing and furnishing goods, go to J. H. Waggoner & Co., Clark's marble block. They are first class merchants, and sell goods at wholesale or retail.

LIGHT.—If you want a cheap, neat and beautiful light, go to Blood & Co., 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street. They deal in oils, lamps, lanterns, stoves, zinc, lead and tin-ware.

DAY.—We speak by the card when we say that Prof. Y. Day is the artist of Memphis. His rooms are at the corner of Union and Main streets. If you desire life-like pictures patronize him—his prices are low and uniform.

DIXIE.—Remember that Dixie is the man you can see him at his saloon near the New Memphis Theatre—he will furnish you with comfort for the inner man.

WEATHERBEE.—In the rear of the Senate building, Jefferson street, between Main and Second, is located Harry Weatherbee's gem of a saloon. His wines and liquors are all of the purest and best brands.

TENNORIAL.—When you visit Memphis be sure to call on Joseph Tennor; you will find him at his Excelsior saloon in the Wortham House. He is the leader of the fashion.

HARDWARE.—Choate & Co., at No. 232 Front street, deal in hardware of all kinds, stoves, plows, farming implements, tin-ware, etc., and sell at northern prices.

LOCAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

REMOVAL.—Harrington & Co., during the present week, have had all hands busily employed in removing their immense stock of goods and groceries into the new building a few doors north of their old stand, and which was erected as their permanent place of business by A. S. Coleman, and is, beyond doubt, the largest structure of the kind ever built in Tennessee outside of the two leading cities—Memphis and Nashville. No material change, save that of location, has or will take place. The affable and accommodating Lewis Coffin, will still preside as the chief of the yard stick, while Esquire Anderson masters the situation as regards the grocery and provision department. Look in at the big frame house.

While you are in Funds Provide for your Family.

Fleming & Usery are now prepared to fill all orders for family supplies at Memphis rates with freight added. We buy our sugar, molasses and coffee in New Orleans, and are satisfied to sell for the same profits as Memphis merchants. We keep the best brands of flour to be had in St. Louis. Our stock of groceries is immense, and we are in daily receipt of new and fresh goods, and intend to keep our stock complete, and will not be undersold. FLEMING & USSERY, jan 10

If you wish to lay up your garments where moths do not corrupt, go and get one of those elegant cedar chests for sale by FLEMING & USSERY.

Cotton stripes, cotton checks and cottonades just received and for sale at the cash store of BILLS & HILL.

We are determined to keep our stock of dry goods and groceries complete, and in order to do so, a great deal of money is necessary. We therefore call upon all persons indebted to us, to come forward and make settlement.—Be off with the old love before you are on with the new. FLEMING & USSERY, jan 10

Cumberland iron, horseshoes and horse-shoe nails for sale by FLEMING & USSERY, jan 10

Particular Notice.
As the season is far advanced, we wish to dispose of our stock of clothing in order to make room for a Spring Stock, and now offer an elegant stock of heavy, winter clothing at cost for cash. FLEMING & USSERY, jan 10

True Bill.—The grand jury of Fayette county have found a true bill against A. C. Kirwan for the killing of Stewart at La Grange several weeks ago.

Why is it easier to spell fiddle de de than fiddle de de? Because it is spelled with more R's (seven).

DIED.
On Wednesday morning, 24th inst., at 24 o'clock, Mary Gray, aged two years, only child of the Rev. W. C. and M. L. Gray.

O, bleeding heart! O lonely one!
Thy hopes have not all fled.
Though the one you loved is sleeping
With the still and silent dead,
Thy faith hath made thee strong,
Thy love of truth is true,
And "Thy Will Be Done" is uttered
In thy holy praying prayer.

ASTROLOGY.

The World Astonished
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
Made by the Great Astrologist,
Madame H. A. Ferrigo.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what way you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages, and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her most supernatural powers, she reads the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so good an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likewise enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished for those who desire them. Reparator Capilli.

Three weeks' use of this Reparator, your wig—restorative of comfort, and not worth a hair—will be gone, and your hair will be restored to its original condition, and will grow again. REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the smoothest face in from eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given.
